

You are cordially invited to a two-part event

ACEs Health Champions Gathering

Part 1: Monday, November 7, 2022

12:00pm - 1:00pm PT via Zoom

You are invited to a free virtual gathering

HOT TOPIC

Is psychological maltreatment a primary driver of harm and violence?

Stuart N. Hart, PhD

Stuart N. Hart, PhD, is Principal of Strategic Initiatives for the International Institute for Child Rights and Development (IICRD), Victoria, BC, Canada, affiliate of Royal Roads University; Professor Emeritus, School of Education, Indiana University-Purdue University-Indianapolis; Co-Founder and Executive Board member of the Psychological Maltreatment Alliance.

Amy M. Smith Slep, PhD

Amy M. Smith Slep is a Professor at New York University and co-directs the Family Translational Research Group, comprising an interdisciplinary team of researchers focused on understanding violence in families and the effective implementation of prevention approaches.

Part 2: Friday, December 16, 2022

12:00pm - 1:00pm PT via Zoom

You are invited to a free virtual gathering

HOT TOPIC

When is poor parenting psychological maltreatment?

Marla R. Brassard, PhD

Marla R. Brassard, PhD, is Professor Emerita in the School Psychology Program at Teachers College, Columbia University. A licensed psychologist, for 40+ years her research has focused on psychological maltreatment (PM) of children by parents, teachers, and peers.

RSVP Here

The California Professional Society on the Abuse of Children
Strengthening Practice Through Knowledge

