

Bradley L. McCartt holds a BFA in communications and BBA in marketing from Southern Methodist University. He earned his Juris Doctor from Pepperdine University School of Law. He joined the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office in 1995 and specializes in the prosecution of sex crimes and child abuse as well as sex offender registration law and sex offender recidivism. He is currently assigned as the Deputy-In-Charge of Stuart House/Santa Monica Rape Treatment Center as part of a multi-disciplinary team specializing in the investigation and vertical prosecution of sexual assault cases involving children.

Mr. McCartt serves as a legislative resource for both the California District Attorneys Association (CDA) and the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office, having authored six bills seeking to improve California's Sexually Violent Predator Act, Sex Offender Registration Act and sexual assault victim's rights. In recognition of this, he received the 2017 award for Outstanding Civic Engagement by a Prosecutor for the State of California from CDA. Two of these bills (SB 384 -Tiered Sex Offender Registration and SB 145 - LGBTQ Young People Nondiscrimination/Sex Offender Registration) were co-sponsored by EQCA.

He serves as the co-chair of CDA's Sexually Violent Predator and Sexual Assault Committees. His article "Improving Public Safety Through Sex Offender Registry Reform: A Guide to SB 384 and the New Tiered System" was published in the Prosecutor's Brief. Additionally, he is on the board of the California Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (CAPSAC).

In 2023 Mr. McCartt was appointed to the California Sex Offender Management Board representing all prosecuting attorneys in the state of California. Additionally, he was appointed to the Cal OES State Advisory Committee (SAC) on Sexual Assault Victim's Services. Mr. McCartt is the incoming president of CAPSAC (The California chapter of the American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children).
