

Primary Care Guide to Using Resources with ACEs/Trauma Screening

- Assess risk, then respond.

- Four Components:
  1. Navigation to Community Resources
  2. Parenting Stress: Crisis Lines, Parent education and support
  3. Specialty Mental Health
  4. Psychiatry Consult for pediatricians

# 1 and 2 will be discussed today.

Navigation to Community Resources

- Help Me Grow
- FIND Connect

Parenting Stress: Crisis Lines, Parent Education and Support

- Crisis line 24 hour Safe and Sound
- First Five Family Resource Centers
- Parent Café
- Catholic Charities
- Child Advocacy Center

Specialty Mental Health

- SCC Behavioral Health
- Uplift

Psychiatry Consult for pediatricians

- CAPP at UCSF and Maven: telephone consultation with psychiatrist to help pediatrician manage cases in primary care
- Uplift

The American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (APSAC)

- Visit apsac.org for resources including evidence-based Practice Guidelines, Position Papers, Amicus Briefs, Research to Practice Briefs, and Parent Resources.

The California Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (CAPSAC)

- A network of professionals from multiple disciplines providing:
  - Education, training, and resources
  - Expert consultation
  - Networking, support, and referrals

Visit us at capsac.org

<https://www.facebook.com/CaliforniaAPSAC>